

SANORD CONFERENCE 2017

“The role of universities in Research and Technology transfer to improve the livelihoods in Southern Africa”

More Information

Website: www.nust.ac.zw/SANORD2017

Email: SANORD2017@nust.ac.zw

Sub Themes

1. Challenges faced by universities in attracting international funding for research
2. Science Technology Engineering Mathematics (STEM) in transforming university research outputs
3. Role of Researchers in the Southern African Diaspora in fostering multinational collaborative research
4. Challenges to SADC and Nordic countries in commercialization and implementation of research outputs
5. The role of research in improving livelihood and addressing inequalities / access to opportunities
6. New epistemologies and new forms of knowledge within the North-South dialogue and collaboration
7. Adding value to North South collaborations
8. Studies of science, technology and society in post-colonial contexts
9. Understanding health and well-being: Contributions from the social sciences and medical humanities.
10. Climate change – challenges and opportunities for Southern Africa.

Conference at a glance

Administrative meeting for SANORD	27 November 2017
Administrative meeting for SANORD	28 November 2017
Conference Begins	29 November 2017
Conference Ends	01 December 2017

Programme Timelines

Call for submission:	20 APR 2017
Deadline for submission:	20 JUN 2017
Notification of Abstract Acceptance:	20 JUL 2017
Registration Opens:	01 JUN 2017
Registration Closes	01 NOV 2017